MEDIA DOCUMENTATION REPORT

Project Overview

Brandor was engaged by FALCONMAX TRAINING AND CONSULTING NIGERIA LIMITED to provide professional media documentation and strategic content coverage for the 2-Day Business Communication Masterclass.

Our objective was not only to capture the activities of the programme, but also to document the experience, engagement, learning environment, and overall impact of the training through professional photography, videography, and strategic interview content.

Scope of Coverage

During the two-day masterclass, Brandor provided:

- Professional photography documenting key activities, facilitators, and participants.
- Video coverage of the training sessions and major moments.
- Strategic interviews capturing participants' experiences and perspectives on the programme.
- Visual content designed to support future communication, promotion, storytelling, and documentation of the programme.

Content Access

All approved photos and video content from the Business Communication Masterclass have been organized and made available through the project folder.

Important: Content Download & Quality

To maintain the original quality of the photographs and videos, we kindly recommend that all content be downloaded directly from the shared folder rather than screenshot, screen-recorded, or re-saved from compressed platforms.

About Brandor

Brandor is a creative media agency that helps organizations, businesses, and development-focused institutions communicate their work, strengthen their identity, and showcase their impact through professional branding, media production, event and training documentation, and strategic storytelling.

We believe that every meaningful programme has a story worth documenting.

Appreciation

We sincerely appreciate FALCONMAX TRAINING AND CONSULTING NIGERIA LIMITED for trusting and engaging Brandor for the documentation of this important programme.

It was a privilege to capture the activities, experiences, and moments from the two-day Business Communication Masterclass.

We look forward to supporting and documenting more of your trainings, programmes, events, and future activities.

Thank you for choosing Brandor.
